Peter Marrión has recovered the overcoat which was stolen from his house several days ago. The missing garment was returned to Mr. Marrión through the police, who recovered it at the Jones & Nye livery stable. Two men suspected of being connected with the theft sold the coat to someone at the stable and then left town. Another coat belonging to John Marrión was taken at the same time, but it is thought that the thieves were unable to dispose of it quickly and carried it with them when they set out for parts unknown.

"Jim Bridger's Indian Bride," an Indian historical romance, Jim Bridger rescues an Indian girl from a bear pit, falls in love with her and they elope, followed by a band of angry savages. Reaching Bridger's log cabin, they bar the door and windows and put up a brave defense against the mad attack of the enraged Indians. When the white man's ammunition is exhausted and defeat and capture seem sure, they are rescued by a company of U. S. cavalry. After the rescue the champion of the cavalry company is revealed upon to them and there marry the happy couple. Captain Humphreys in his book, "Twenty Years Among Our Hostile Indians," says, "Jim Bridger was a typical frontiersman, trapper and famous Indian scout and taught Kit Carson all he knew about Indian fighting." The captain also describes in detail his famous Indian romance and marriage, which our story depicts. In this remarkable picture play, we present one of Bridger's greatest battles with the Indians. It's at the Dreamland.

BARRE SHOE COMPANY

TO THE PEOPLE OF BARRE AND VICINITY:

We wish to announce to the people of Barre and vicinity that we are not going out of business. The sale being held in the Bolster Block is only a part of our stock, which we sold to settle the estate of J. M. Marean.

We shall continue in business in our present location and will keep the same lines of shoes as formerly.

Our stock is now the freshest of any stock of shoes in Washington County, as we have not a pair of shoes on our shelves that has been bought longer than nine months.

We cordially invite our old patrons and many new ones, and we can assure you that footwear bought of us will be new and up to date.

Yours respectfully,

Barre Shoe Company
